

My company, Your Three Days Ltd, offers a comprehensive bespoke writing service: one-of-a-kind ceremonies, original elements to complement any occasion and custom-made commissions.

Since starting life as a humanist ceremony business in 2010, Your Three Days Ltd has flourished, and, as a result of so many of my clients falling in love with the unique creative method, expanded. Now, unrestricted by geography or availability, new clients can enjoy a similarly remarkable process of information gathering, discussion and reflection, this time resulting in another beautiful text, but not necessarily a ceremony.

You can't find the 'Your Three Days' experience anywhere else.

So, perhaps we've already created an amazing ceremony together and now it is family or friends who are engaged, celebrating a new arrival or anniversary. They love the sound of all you've been praising, but they'd prefer to just have individual elements created, rather than a whole ceremony.

Perhaps we're colleagues and you've witnessed firsthand the warmth, authenticity and emotion my ceremonies capture. Inspired to recommend a similar quality experience to your own clients, but in a different form, you might turn to my innovative 'Portraits in Prose' commissions.

Or perhaps you're new to 'Your Three Days' and are simply intrigued by all such an individually tailored experience can offer.

However you've come to hold this leaflet in your hand, I'm delighted that you have. I welcome any opportunity to share the passion, skill and experience that is at the heart of all I do.

I would be only too happy to answer any questions you may have.

'Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! I don't feel like thank you even covers it but I don't have other words. We KNEW you would do an incredible job. I KNEW you were perfect the moment I called. If you had charged 5 times as much, I would have paid it without flinching. Every single line and word was us.'

Vows and rings

Always the emotional core of any wedding and when they are bespoke, even more so.
